Applause goes to Ukrainians for having new masters to suck to! Its mind boggling to see them talking about democracy when their country became a whore to western elite almost a decade ago and they are still gullibly unaware of this. Their own people are held a hostage by their own home-brewed Nazis, yet they are still sleeping. Betraying your own ethos must be exhilarating.

Even more mind boggling is seeing some idiotic Russians who don't even understand the whole, sad reason for this conflict. Why and how it was literally orchestrated and provoked into existence by the very same western oligarchy. Guess living in West requires some "sacrifices"...

What is the point of this nonsensical rant? Instead of bitching about Russia, why not learn more about your own country being sold to Khabat to Rothschilds (thus, to West) and provoking Russia to war since the year 2004? These are facts with well established proof material for almost 2 decades now. You can bitch about "Russian aggression" all you want to non-Russian speaking Westerners who are clueless about the region, its people and politics, but not to us - people of old Soviets. Mariupol my ass. You are the people who convict your own disabled people for espionage, convicting them 15 yrs in jail; the people who outright sell the weapons your receive from West in black market, then send your own kids to mass slaughter with complete disregard, calling it "fight for freedom", at the same time accumulating the debt of billions every single week, for your children to pay for coming centuries. The level of idiocy UA is demonstrating is beyond logic, not a single Middle Eastern country being invaded by US have done such an unspeakable idiocy in the name of "democracy" :) Just mind boggling. So please! Go, report this, and call me Russia-lover (which I am not) and be done with it!

#BlackTransplantology is booming in #Ukraine... Bodies of soldiers and civilians alike are being found with missing organs.

And as of late, the same surfaced in earthquake-torn #Turkiye as well. Recovered bodies of the dead are being found with organs removed, post-recovery.

Extremely disturbing really!

I'd like to personally thank Mr #OliverStone , a great filmmaker of our time for his work "Ukraine on Fire". I wish I watched this when it came out, but you know the rampant censorship all around us...

Also endless respect to Lex Fridman for interviewing Mr Stone, which is another eye-opening experience:

unemployment rate.

Let's continue our support for Ukraine to end this war. Because war is not only killing people, it is destroying future prospects of an entire generation.

Why don't you mention those billions in "aid" those children and their children and their children will be paying for decades, effectively becoming slaves of Uncle Sam and its allies?
