Deeply ashamed by Durham's support of fascist ideology of Ukrainian militants. UPD i am even more ashamed that for 8 years killing of ukrainians in Donbass by these militants with clear nazi ideology was neither spoken about, nor condemned by any of the loud voices that now find it convenient (or perhaps serving other purposes) to shout about the value of human life. Human lives are important, all of them, and there are no lesser important lives just because people live in a specific place or country, speak another language, or have a different skin color or religion. Instead of following the herd, it would be far more important (and useful) to learn all the facts, all the history, all perspectives. After all, this is what education is about: gathering the facts and applying critical perspective, not shouting slogans with very little knowledge of facts.

Tony Storey are you proud of their 8 years silence while nazi militants killed their fellow ukrainians in Donbass? Or you are proud of children camps where they armed 8year olds and preached nazi ideology, saying that those in Donbass are lesser people and deserve to die (literally)? If so, then i am ashamed of you. And FOR you

Alex Kambanis there are very basic differences in neo-nazi involvement in the two sides: while extremists were involved in the beginning of the Donbas movement, they never became mainstream, they play no role whatsoever in the ideology or political decisions in Donbass; contrary to Ukrainian fascists who fully adopted extreme nationalist ideology of Bandera fascist movement, including even symbols, like the greeting and logo, and became mainstream in the Ukrainian Natzbatallions and government.

The whole of 'civilized' world is now supporting what has been for long a clearly fascist and nazi regime in Ukraine. So no wonder that antisemitism is becoming legit. I am sure that there is more to come.
