Why should I feel shame?

I'm living in the most peaceful country, with brilliant and carrying people, who choose to fight Devil where they find it for the good of all mankind and many times proved to be that kind of special and yet very decent people, helping all around the world even when that required self-sacrifice.

I'm proud to be Russian, I want world to be independent, countries and nations to choose their own path, to preserve their cultural differences, to make sure they profit from their resources.

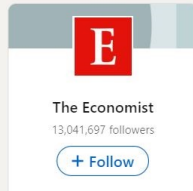

But there are few things I can't tolerate and which fill my heart with pure rage, such things are: not ending colonialism of Africa, South America and some of Asia and Middle East, when some nation call itself exceptional because it always ends with nazism, when someone tell me how should I think or feel or that their values are better than mine. So as Russian I have a mission to contribute to liberty of all nations and make this world a more fair place, it might be not better from the consumption point of few but fair, and that's enough for me, for all Russians and for 7 billion people who think similar.

That is a lie from first letter to the last. And you are so lazy even in lies that forgot to put a fence on a picture. That would be first in history detention center without a fence. In reality it must be a refugee camp organized by our Ministry of Emergency Situations. Detention centers are UK, US, Germany and whole Europe tditions, starting from slavery and ending with Guantanamo Bay SPA Resort.
